Half-ball strainer 13 cm reinforced stainless steel with 0.53 mm mesh

The half-ball strainer by Pujadas provides an exceptional performance and incomparable versatility. The stainless steel promises years of use, even in high-demand applications, and the strong 0.53-millimeter mesh ensures quick, efficient straining. The handle offers a comfortable grip and plenty of leverage, even when straining heavy food items. The hook at the end of the handle is perfect for space-saving hanging storage, and the bowl hooks on the other end allow this strainer to rest on a bowl or pot during use. Whether this strainer is used for removing solids from sauces, draining cooking liquids, rinsing vegetables or something else, it's sure to get the job done with ease.
