20-quart 220- to 230-volt bench mixer with safety guard and Schuko plug

The 20-quart bench mixer by Vollrath is built tough, promising years of reliability and durability. It features a 3-speed belt drive, allowing you to mix a variety of products at the appropriate speed, and the 30-minute timer automatically turns the mixer off at the end of the cycle. This mixer comes with all the accessories required for operation, including a safety guard to prevent accidental injury. Strong legs maintain stability while black feet prevent movement during use. If you want to expand your mixer's versatility to include grinding and slicing, a No. 12 Hub can accommodate the appropriate Vollrath attachments.
