Sandwich toaster 3000 W stainless steel for 120 to 130 slices per hour

Fast and efficient, the sandwich toaster by Pujadas does not disappoint. The powerful quartz heating elements respond quickly for efficient toasting, accommodating between 120 and 130 slices per hour. The individual left- and right-side controls help achieve precise, high-quality results, and the built-in timer ensures convenient operation and easy repeatability. The stainless steel provides impressive durability and longevity, while the two separate levels maximize space and versatility. This toaster comes with six sandwich tongs, which offer a reliable grip and keep hands far away from the heating elements for safety, as well as a drip tray in the bottom to prevent messes and ensure quick cleaning.
