Non slip serving tray 35 cm polypropylene and rubber in black

Make sure every dish and drink makes it to the table with the nonskid serving tray by Pujadas. This round tray is made of polypropylene and rubber to prevent items from sliding, which helps reduce breakage and increase profits. The 35-centimeter size offers plenty of room, and the molded lip on the edge promises a secure grip for easy transportation. This tray's smooth surface ensures quick cleaning, while its neutral black color blends into any establishment, making it the perfect choice for everything from catering operations to restaurants, buffets to bars and more.
